

The Mayor, Cllr Leslie McDonnell said

“These awards are about the “unsung heroes” who are vital to this borough but in many cases get no formal recognition for their efforts. It’s been a privilege to meet them and shine the light on the work these wonderful and selfless people do.”

The full list of nominees is as follows:

- Edna Chandler – Services to Putney Scouts
- Central Wandsworth Girl Guiding Leadership Team – Services to Guiding Groups
- David Lunt – Services to Safer Neighbourhood Team
- Chris McLean – Services to Battersea Dogs & Cats Home
- Senia Dedic – Services to WoW Intergrational Project
- Donna Barham – Services to Kambala Estate Community
- Ricky Hammond – Services to Coach for Battersea Lions
- Jackie Coward – Services to Childcare
- John Clarke – Services to Young People in Battersea
- Frank Colley – Services to Leonard Cheshire Disability
- Fiona Ripley – Services to Ethelburga Estate Gardening Club
- Dee Creed – Services to Wandsworth Salvation Army
- Helen Matthews – Services to Tooting Community
- Nathalie Gibson-Wilson – Services to Tooting Graveney Day Care Centre & Various Wandsworth Charities
- Lucy Davies – Services to Early Years
- Ron Holloway – Services to East Putney Scouts Group
- Geoff Simmons – Services to Summerstown 182 Project -
- Peter Jackson – Services to Southfields Scouts
- Mr & Mrs Berge – Services to Neighbour
- Alister Notridge – Services to Army Cadet force
- Jane Bell – Services to Health Care in Wandsworth
- Dawn Thomas – Services to Community Services
- Margaret Brett – Services to Community Services